Mental Health First Aid is an 8-hour training course that teaches you how to help someone who is developing a mental health problem or experiencing a mental health crisis. People across the country — in all 50 states and the District of Columbia — are trained in Mental Health First Aid. They know how to identify, understand and respond to signs of mental illness and addictions.

The course is delivered by certified Mental Health First Aid USA instructors who complete a 5-day training and meet certification requirements.

Brook Lane offers Mental Health First Aid training as well as Youth Mental Health First Aid training on a quarterly basis, please visit www.brooklane.org Current Events for additional training dates.
