Annual Clinical, Legal & Ethical Issues Seminar

A Professional License to Practice: A Prized Possession

Presenters: J. Emmet Burke, PhD, JD and The Honorable Dana Moylan Wright, Circuit Court Washington County, MD

8:30 am – 11:45 am

(8:00 am check-in & continental breakfast) (3 hours)

Location: Beaver Creek Country Club Fee: $ 79.00

This annual seminar will provide three hours of continuing education in ethics, law, professional conduct and risk management to satisfy Maryland licensure requirements. Discussion will include an examination of the Code of Ethics and state laws and regulations to empower clinicians to better understand how to protect themselves and their licensure status in the event of a complaint. A license to practice professionally requires adherence to professional standards as defined by Professional Boards of Examiners and by state law and regulation. Ideally, these external expectations assist providers to practice in a professional manner.

Infidelity and Affairs: Helping Couples Heal Their Broken Hearts

Presenter: Dr. Robert Scuka, Executive Director, National Institute of Relationship Enhancement

8:30 am – 11:45 am

(8:00 - 8:30 am check-in/log on)

(3 hours)

ZOOM Seminar

Fee: $79.00

The disclosure of an affair is among the most devastating and painful experiences that couples face. It is also one of the most challenging and complicated problems encountered in therapy. This workshop will examine various forms of infidelity, the impact of its discovery on each spouse and the marriage, and issues of recovery and treatment. Some of the challenges encountered in treatment include how much information about the affair should be disclosed, how to help with shattered trust, hypervigilance and anxiety, and how to build empathy between the partners. Some important insights that have been gained in understanding and treating infidelity and affairs will be reviewed. In addition, a framework for the treatment of infidelity rooted in Relationship Enhancement Therapy will be presented.
