

CONTINUING EDUCATION SEMINAR

Growing the Future Generation: Clinical Supervision Best Practices

Friday
MAY 10, 2024

From
8:30 am - 11:45 am (3 CEUs)

This seminar will focus on the educational requirements for existing board approved supervisors to obtain CEUs in supervision for licensure renewal. This will include reviewing the Maryland requirements for providing supervision. The program will also explore the practical aspects of supervision from required documentation, notes and time keeping to billing and coding. Also included will be dialog on when Clinical Supervision crosses into therapy and how to create a legacy.

Participant Learning Objectives:

- Understand Maryland requirements to be a supervisor of LMSW and LGPC
- Identify the length of time supervision notes are to be kept by the supervisor
- Share practical tips for recording supervision times and required paperwork
- Understand when supervision crosses over into therapy
- Identify billing and coding to avoid fines, delays and embarrassment
- Define leaving a legacy

Featuring Mike Shea, EdD, LCSW-C, licensed certified social worker and the owner of Life Counseling in Waynesboro, PA. Dr. Shea has more than 40 years of experience in the field of mental health, working with clients of all ages across a range of services. He formerly served as the Director of Outpatient Services for Brook Lane where he provided oversight and leadership to therapists at multiple locations. Dr. Shea also has provided clinical supervision for numerous therapists in the Hagerstown area and maintains his supervision credentials.
